PROGRAM

What topics will be covered during the 2023APCS?

The overarching theme of the Summit is 'Shaping Cities for our Future' with three sub-themes to be discussed in each half-day session:

- Cities of Connection – technology, data and the people.
- Cities of Sustainability – adapting to growth, inclusivity and wellbeing.
- Cities of Legacy – creating events for prosperity and longevity.

Program outline

Please refer to the website for the most up-to-date program available here.

How will Meet@APCS business meetings work?

The APCS has built a strong reputation for fostering private-public partnerships and helping businesses expand into key global markets. The Meet@APCS program focuses on building your global networks through business introductions and networking events, and entry to the main exhibition and networking hub - APCS Market Square. At the 2023APCS, the Meet@APCS program will have an app where registered delegates can connect with each other and request and accept meetings. They will open prior to the Summit and all delegates will be notified once this is available. There will also be a Meet@APCS registration desk on site during the Summit to assist with facilitation.

What is the dress code for the APCS?

The dress code for the 2023APCS, networking and social events is business attire. For the Urban Walk, the dress code is smart casual and comfortable walking attire is suggested. During October, the average temperature in Brisbane can vary from 16-26°C.

ACCOMMODATION, TRAVEL AND VISAS

Will airport transfers be available?

Delegates will be required to make their own way from the airport to their accommodation. Visit the Brisbane Airport website for transport options.

What are the accommodation options?

A list of partner hotels will be provided to delegates and bookings will be able to be made with negotiated rates. Delegates are invited to make their own hotel bookings at the hotel of their choosing. Please refer to the accommodation tab of the website for further details.

In what language will the Summit be conducted?

English is the official language of the APCS. Simultaneous translation headsets will be provided for Mandarin and Tagalog and Auslan services will also be provided during keynote and plenary sessions. The Mayors' Forum will be conducted in English only. An interpreter is permitted if required for the Forum. Delegates requiring interpreting for meetings are required to bring their own interpreter to the Summit.

Visa information

An official letter of invitation to attend APCS will be sent to non-Australian delegates for visa application purposes once full payment for registration has been received. Unless you are a citizen of Australia or New Zealand, you will need to apply for and obtain a visa to enter Australia before you travel. It is strongly recommended that you apply at least six (6) weeks before you travel. For details on visas to enter Australia please visit www.border.gov.au

OPPORTUNITIES – MEETINGS AND NETWORKING

APCS has a strong reputation of facilitating connections with public and private sectors. Meet@APCS delivers introductions, networking and meeting opportunities via a suite of exclusive platforms:

- The APCS App - exclusively available to APCS participants. The APCS App is an interactive platform that allows delegates to build personal and business profiles, search and introduce themselves to other participants, request and confirm meetings and more. The App opens in advance of the Summit and remains open for two months post event.
- APCS Market Square - a key feature of the Summit and provides display opportunities for businesses and city administrations, large and small. Anchored by the Brisbane Pavilion, an interactive space featuring meeting facilities, café and more, the Market Square is the prime location for meeting other delegates and exhibitors at APCS. All delegate refreshment breaks and lunches are served in the Market Square which is located immediately adjacent to Summit meeting rooms.
- APCS Networking Events - the Summit offers excellent networking opportunities at prominent social events. Principal amongst these include the Networking Reception on the opening day and the APCS Gala Dinner. Further invitation-only events are held over the course of the Summit.
